

Offices: Vail Valley and Denver

Tel: 303.406.3709

Email: Peter@RudyLaw.com

Biographical Information

Peter Rudy is the managing partner in the employment and business law firm of Rudy Law LLC. With offices in Avon and Denver, the firm represents clients throughout Colorado in all areas of management employment, labor and business law. The firm is heavily involved in the in the hospitality, construction and high tech industries, working with hotels, restaurants, ski resorts, contractors and software engineering companies. Rudy Law emphasizes preventive employment lawyering: designing and implementing programs that help avoid claims. This includes termination risk assessment, management training, and counseling management on employment issues.

Peter speaks frequently to trade associations and groups throughout the west. He has been a featured speaker for Ski Country USA, Adventure Travel Trade Association, the Colorado Chamber of Commerce, Council on Education in Management, and numerous state and local chambers of commerce and restaurant associations.

Peter has worked with Colorado businesses of all sizes (and from 1 to 5,000 employees) since 1986. Moving his practice to Vail in 1990, he became a pioneer in hospitality employment law. He maintains offices and residences in both Avon and Denver.

The firm's clients are businesses and associations of all types and sizes, including ski companies, restaurants and hotels, contractors and engineering firms. His clients range from East West Resorts to Beau Jo's Pizza, as well as serving as Colorado counsel for multi-national companies.